Jack B Little

Jack B Little is our adorable DIY goblin charm that adds a touch of whimsy to any Halloween costume. Make it today, wear it tonight.

If making for a child's costume, shorten length and use a safety break-away clasp to close.

What's Needed:

Lt. Orange Twill Tape 1 YD

Pumpkin Bead 1 PC- Bead Gallery

Embroidery Floss (2 Skein) #166 DMC

Cabone Ring (.5 in) 1 PC- Boye

Flower Buttons (4 PCS)

Aleene's Fabric Adhesive

Tooth Pick

8" Scissors- Fiskars

How To Make It:

Step 1

Cut a piece of floss 24" long. Fold floss in half. Make one side 6" long the other 18". Attach the floss to the ring using the larks head knot.

Step 2

To cover the ring with floss, thread the 18" piece through the of back of the ring then through the floss loop created. Pull the floss end tightly to make knot.

Step 3

Repeat looping and knotting until the ring is covered with floss.

Step 4

Tie a double knot using the two pieces of floss to secure.

Step 5

String the two pieces of floss through the top of a pumpkin bead.

Step 6

Tie a double knot tightly using the floss pieces at the bottom of the pumpkin bead. Set aside.

Step 5

Cut 25 pieces of floss 10" long. Bundle the pieces together evenly at the ends.

Step 6

Place the bundle center between the two pieces of floss. Tie a tight double knot to secure. Set aside.

Step 7

Cut 20 pieces of floss 4" long. Bundle the pieces together evenly at the ends.

Step 8

Tightly double knot a piece of 4" floss around the center of the bundle.

Step 9

To attach the sleeves to the body, divide the floss attached to the pumpkin bead in half. Place the tied 4" bundle in the center and pull up snug against the pumpkin bead. Wrap a 5" piece of floss twice around finishing with a tight double knot.

Step 10

Note: The sleeves and legs prior to braiding are free moving and flowy. This body makes stylish pumpkin headed spirit that can be hung from a chandler or garland.

Step 11

Work the floss so strands rest neatly together. Wrap and double knot a piece of floss around both ends of the sleeves. Cut ends even.

Step 12

Work the floss so strands rest neatly together. Split the body floss in half. Braid each side. Wrap and double knot a piece of floss under each braid to secure. Cut ends evenly.

Step 13

Thread the light orange twill tape through the hole at the top of the pumpkin bead. Knot to secure. Glue the three flower buttons on the twill tape see photo. Let dry.

To wear, simply tie the two pieces of twill tape together in a bow.

Step 14

Your Jack B Little charm can be worn alone or paired with other pieces from the Blu Arlan Pumpkin and Pearl collection.
