

Raven Mini Crown

Sweetly simple, the DIY Raven Mini Crown is an ideal alternative to the big witch hat. Great for hobnobbing witches on the go.

What's Needed:

Novelty Headband- Target
Black Feathers
Black Glitter Pom-Pom (1)
Bird Sticker (1)
Weeds- From The Garden

Black Sharpie
Hot Glue Gun w/Glue
8" Non-Stick Scissors Fiskars
Hair Spray- $1 Type Store

How To Make It:

Step 1

Begin by hot gluing the pom-pom to the top of the hat.

Step 2

Hot glue black feathers across the front of the hat. Place feathers hanging over the brim and up the steeple.

Set hat aside.

Use feather diagram for placement

Step 3

To create a raven from an ordinary bird sticker color the image in using a black Sharpie. It's the silhouette of a black bird that is needed.

Step 4

Remove the sticker from the release paper. Cut fluffy pieces off the feather and stick them to the back of the sticker. This will give the illusion of feathers on the bird.

Step 5

Select a decorative orange bead. Hot glue the bead on the front of the hat.

Step 6

Hot glue the bird sticker to the hat. Attach by the bottom or feet of the bird sticker.

Note: Backing the sticker with feather fluff will stiffen up the sticker and remove the stick allowing the bird to stand.

Step 7

Spray the weeds with hair spray. This will hold the seeds in place.

Silk flowers can be used as a substitute if desired.

Step 8

To finish, hot glue small buds and pieces of stem throughout the feathers.

Step 9

The Raven Mini Crown looks great with a black feather boa. To complete a simple Raven costume, add feathers to the cuffs of a long sleeve black tee and go.

Raven Paper Festooning

Create a creepy entrance this Halloween using paper products for your $1 type store.

We spent $6.00 for our paper items and used the small Command hooks to hang them.

And the Ravens, we purchased 10 at our $1 type store, 3 at Target for $3 each and one large Raven on sale at Michaels for $7.99.
